Priority Telephone Numbers for Important Supplies and Services in Rathkeale During COVID-19 Isolation

There are some products and services that remain essential even if Rathkeale must work through an isolation period associated with the COVID-19 virus. With isolation planning in mind the listed organisations will do their best to supply what is needed. In some cases, they will try to arrange delivery if their customers cannot visit their shops.

Of course, no one can predict the future, so this document is provided for information purposes only and is not a guarantee of available supplies or service.
